The British Educational Research Journal is an international medium for the publication of articles of interest to researchers in education and has rapidly become a major focal point for the publication of educational research from throughout the world. All articles published in this journal are peer reviewed. The journal is interdisciplinary in approach, and includes reports of case studies, experiments and surveys, discussions of conceptual and methodological issues and of underlying assumptions in educational research, accounts of research in progress, and book reviews. BERJ is the major publication of the British Educational Research Association, an organisation which aims to promote interest in education and to disseminate findings and discussions of educational research.

Please note, BERJ commissions all its book reviews. Please do not send books or emails regarding books to the Editors. Unsolicited books will not be returned.

What is BERA?

The British Educational Research Association is a member-led organisation dedicated to supporting educational researchers and promoting educational research.

Since its inception in 1974, BERA has expanded into an internationally renowned organisation with UK and non-UK based members. It strives to be inclusive of the diversity of educational research and scholarship.

A strong membership of over 2,000 members secures BERA's place as the home of educational researchers in the UK, providing access to distinguished journals, a world-class conference and other events, and an active peer community.

BERA's aim is to encourage the pursuit of educational research and its application for both the improvement of educational practice and for the public benefit.

Benefits of BERA membership

- Discounted registration at our annual international conference and other events throughout the year.
- Membership of any of our special interest groups (SIGs).
- Free online access to the highly regarded BERA Ethical Guidelines and Charter for Research Staff.
- Online access to the Review of Education (sister publication to BERJ) as well as the highly regarded British Journal of Educational Technology (BJET), the Curriculum Journal and the European Educational Research Journal (EERJ).
- Online access to our innovative Insights publications.
- Print and online copies of our termly membership magazine, Research Intelligence.
- Opportunities to publish a post on the BERA Blog.
- Web-based and email bulletins on research news and events.
- Opportunities to apply for one of many of our highly successful award competitions.
- Opportunities to apply for any of our bursary competitions.
- Opportunities to submit abstracts for our international exchange symposia schemes with AERA, AARE, NZARE, EAARLI, amongst others.
- Opportunities to stand for election as a trustee of the Association and ensure participation at the highest levels of decision making.
- A central London venue headquarters office led by six professional staff with responsibilities for membership and engagement, the annual conference and events, secretariat, publications and awards.
- Opportunity to be part of a vibrant, forward-looking community of educational researchers and to contribute to continuous development of the field of educational research.
